Classes meet Monday through Friday 8:45am-4:15pm.

Students select a major concentration in one of the areas, and spend two morning classes in these areas. After lunch, they are free to choose electives in other areas. Afternoon course offerings may include: stage makeup, children's theater, improvisational theater, painting, drawing, jazz, musical theater, tap dance, hip hop, vocal ensemble, comedy, music video, web video and more. The sessions culminate with "The Evening Of The Arts," a variety-style show. Before and After care is available for an additional fee.

Master Class:

Students entering 8th through 12th grades who have an interest in pursuing acting as a potential career path may sign up for this special 3 week class.

SESSION I

June 24 - July 12
3-week sessions
$725

SESSION II

July 22 - August 9
3-week sessions
$725

The Theater Master Class will focus on helping students learn how to prepare a polished audition piece, as well as further develop their skills in scene work. Students will learn all the "ins and outs" of show business: how to find jobs, audition, agents, headshots, etc. Each session culminates with an evening of theater. Before and After care is available for an additional fee.

Tomato Patch is the longest-running, most successful multi-disciplinary summer arts program in central New Jersey. Since 1973, over 6,200 junior and senior high school students have spent several weeks of their summer exploring the visual arts, dance, theater, and vocal music under the guidance of a highly qualified staff of teaching professional artists.
